Hello and Welcome to Rural Roundup

Since lockdown the magazine has only been available online, but this month we have both printed and online editions. Hopefully, it will be the first of many! As the weather improves and spring seems to have finally arrived, it's good to be out in the garden and enjoying the sunshine.

Thank you to all our contributors, please keep those articles coming in. If you know of any event or other matter that needs to reach a wider audience, please do not hesitate to send it through for publication.

Hello again.

Our February meeting, including a talk "Travels in Burma", was well attended. I won a bottle of wine in the raffle so I was happy! My friend won the gin, but I'm not bitter. I picked up some thalictrum seeds in the seed swap, a favourite of mine. However, they did not germinate. I WAS blaming this on the unknown age of the seeds rather than my own inadequacies. Then I read about some 32,000 year old seeds which Scientists have managed to germinate. Apparently, squirrels in Siberia had "squirreled" them away all those years ago. Then the permafrost had sealed them all in creating a natural cryobank and preserving them. A team of Scientists from Russia, America and Hungary had worked together investigating the site. That very sentence is heart-breaking. Enough said.

This is, for many of us, the best time of year. All that promise, cherry blossom, and hope. We need all that, more than ever. My dahlia and cosmos seeds have germinated like cress, my antirrhinum seeds did, too. And then got damping off fungus. Hmmm. Could it be my laziness not disinfecting all the seed trays properly? If you have extra plants remember to save them for the Garage Safari. I love this as, like most gardeners, I cannot bear to throw excess plants out.

We went for a walk round Pegwell Nature Reserve with the Granddog. Bees and butterflies all over the hawthorn. As the minibeasts are out and about I can now tidy up the mess in the garden without fear of disturbing those hibernators.

April jobs in the garden? I am not referring to the Grand-dog again! Here are a few: dead head the Spring bulbs, spray disease-prone roses, sow hardy annuals. You could write a book about April jobs in the garden. People have, so read those!

Our April meeting features a talk "Wandering in Flanders Fields" by Melanie Gibson-Barton. 7:45 Monday April 25th in Village Hall. I'm a huge fan of poppies, they may well feature.

Hope to see you there.

Kingsdown News

If you as an individual would like to join Action with Communities in Rural Kent, please email them on info@ruralkent.org.uk or look up their website. They try to increase rural awareness, and are the organisation who ran the pop up coffee van that visited Kings Close last year, and plan to do the same this year from April.

The pop up cafe coffee van will be at the green on Kings Close again, starting in April, once permission is confirmed by DDC. Wednesdays, 10.30 - 12.30

20th April 18th May 15th June 10th August 7th September 5th October

The Parish Council have been looking at ways in which Ringwould and Kingsdown can mark the Queens Platinum Jubilee. The Parish Council have funded a village sign for each village. Locations of the signs have yet to be finalised. The plan is to have an unveiling ceremony followed with an afternoon tea. Dates to be confirmed.

Some residents have been suggesting street parties or a village fete. The Parish Council would like to support events and ask if you are planning anything to get in touch. Volunteers for events will be needed, so if you can help please let us know—via: email, the website or phoning 01304 375889. Updates will be posted on Facebook, website and village notice boards.

Phlebotomy services at Deal Hospital

Regarding the phlebotomy services at Deal Hospital - it is up to the Clinical Commissioning Groups to re-instate them.

I'm sure we will need them, and other vital infrastructure, with all the new building developments.

The GP practices are contracted to provide phlebotomy services at their practices, but not at the hospital.

It would seem that GP practices have a contract with the Clinical Commissioning Group to supply phlebotomy services at their practices rather than at the hospital.

GP practices have been providing this service in good faith at the hospital for years.

The closure of services at the hospital is, as usual, all down to contracts and budgets! The CCG knew this two years ago, so why did it come as a bolt out of the blue to patients?

On Sunday 3rd April Spring Beach Clean. Please come and help clean up the beach ready for the Easter Holidays. Pick up your equipment and sign the health and safety form at the KCG stall near the Zetland from 10am.

On Sunday April 10th Walk and talk. South Foreland Battery With Gordon Wise Meet at 2pm St Margaret's village car park. This will be about a 4 mile walk across mostly reasonable walking ground, although good sturdy footwear is recommended! I would also recommend dressing appropriately; it is possible to have all four seasons in one day on Wanstone. The walk will start, and finish, at the Village Car Park in St Margarets (free parking). From there we will walk part of the heritage trail into the South Foreland site and from there on to Wanstone Farm, D2 Anti Aircraft Battery, Fan Bay and returning to the Car Park via the South Foreland site. What I hope to show you is what existed during the war and be able to retrace the steps of the dignitaries that visited the Regiment. It will also be an opportunity for you to see the work the National Trust are doing on the land acquired in 2017.

On Friday 29th April 2022. Walk and Talk Sue Buckingham will lead us on a Spring Flower Walk, helping us to identify species and telling us all about their origins and peculiarities. Meet in front of the Zetland Arms at 10am

Save the Children has launched an emergency appeal for the children caught up in the devastating war in Ukraine. Save the Children has been working in Ukraine for many years. Save the Children is currently providing life-saving aid in the country by distributing essential supplies and winter kits of clothing and blankets as temperatures plunge below zero. It is also providing cash to families to meet basic needs like food, rent and medicines as well as offering vital mental health and psychosocial support to children and their families. Save the Children is running 'safe spaces' for children near the border of Romania and Ukraine. These spaces allow children to play and recover from the terrible experiences they have been through. Just £40 will buy a month's food for a family. To donate visit www.savethechildren.org.uk or telephone 020 7012 6400.

It is possible to donate to the appeal at the collecting tins in Deal Post Office.

WALMER TOWN COUNCIL, JUBILEE PARTY ON THE GREEN

A giant party to celebrate Queen Elizabeth's seventy years on the throne is being held by Walmer Town Council on Walmer Green on the Saturday of the June bank holiday Jubilee weekend.

- A series of events and exhibitions charting the changing world of food, fashion and transport during what has become the longest ever reign of a British Monarch will welcome visitors of all ages.
- The highlight of the day will be the inaugural Best of Kent food, beer and wine festival which will showcase and celebrate some of the counties finest food and drink.
- Kent has over 100 craft breweries, many high-quality local vineyards and countless specialist food producers.
- The highlight of the evening and the climax of the day will be a special Jubilee Concert featuring the Queen's favourite music.
- "Her Majesty has been a Queen for all the people during her reign and her taste in music reflects that," explained Cllr Marguerite Beard-Gould who is organising the event on behalf of Walmer Town Council.
- "We were fascinated to discover that her personal music favourites range from George Formby Leaning on a Lamp Post to Annie Get Your Gun, Vera Lynn and Scottish bagpipes - all of which we intend – with the help of the Deal Music and Arts to provide on the night.
- If you would like to be involved in this event whether a Craft Brewer, Kent Vineyard, Kent food producer, singer or musician you can contact Walmer Town Council: admin@walmercouncil.co.uk

Please see below an invite to a Rural Kent online workshop taking place on 6 April, from 1.30 to 2.30 pm. As part of a wider strategic review of Rural Kent's work, we're really keen to get your feedback on the village hall service and any other Rural Kent services you use. Also your ideas for what else Rural Kent could be doing to help support you and the communities you serve. Whether you're currently a member of the Village Hall Service or not, we'd like to hear your views.
